

Species At Risk in Kemptville District

Mammals

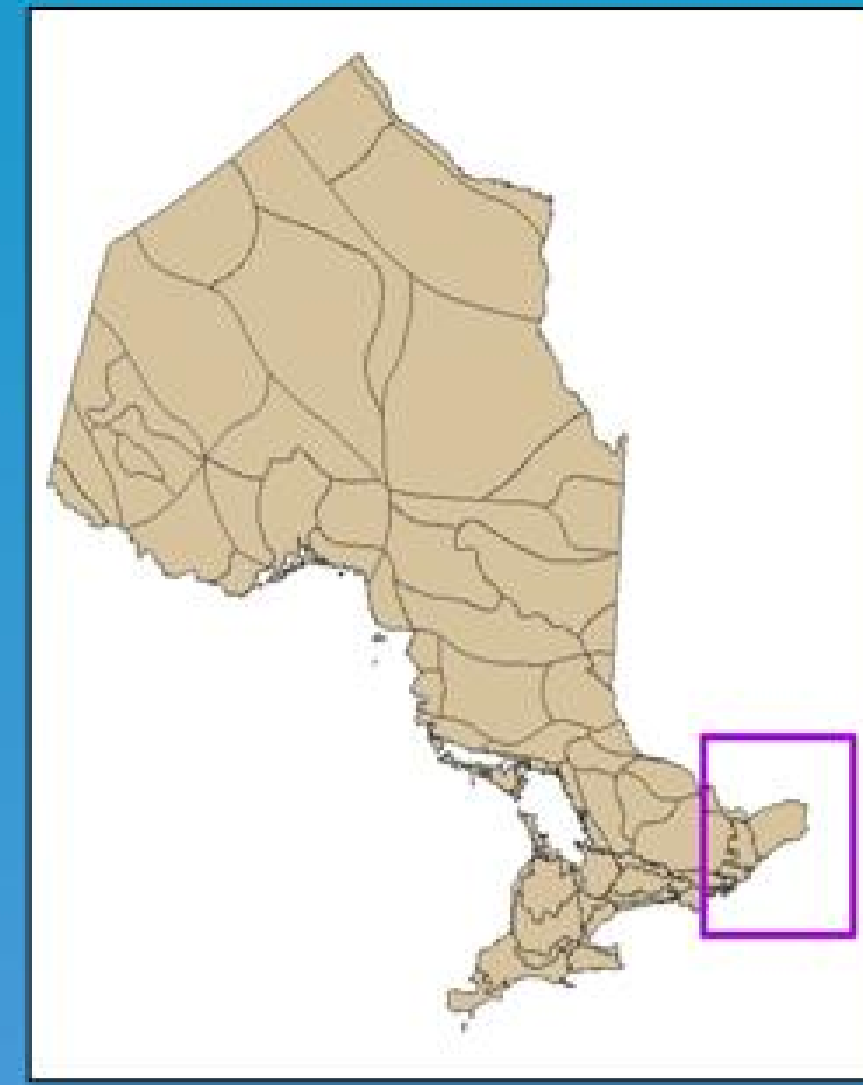

Cougar

Grey Fox

Eastern Canadian Wolf

- ENDANGERED
- THREATENED
- SPECIAL CONCERN

Known species at risk in Kemptville District as of: November 2010

www.mnr.gov.on.ca/en/Business/Species/2ColumnSubPage/246809.html

Butterflies, Moths and Dragonflies

Rapids Clubtail

Rusty-patched Bumble Bee

Bogbean Buckmoth

Monarch

West Virginia White

Mussels

Eastern Pondmussel

Plants and Trees

Butternut

American Ginseng

Eastern Prairie Fringed-orchid

Ogden's Pondweed

Blunt-lobed Woodsia

Deerberry

American Water Willow

Broad Beech Fern

Birds

King Rail

Henslow's Sparrow

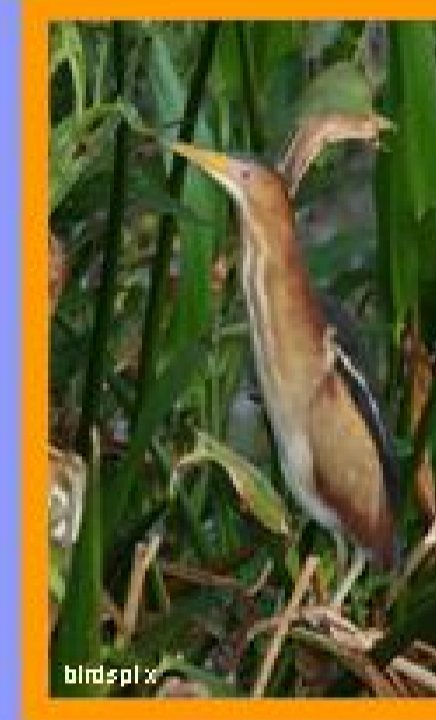

Piping Plover

Loggerhead Shrike

Peregrine Falcon

Least Bittern

Chimney Swift

Bobolink

Whip-poor-will

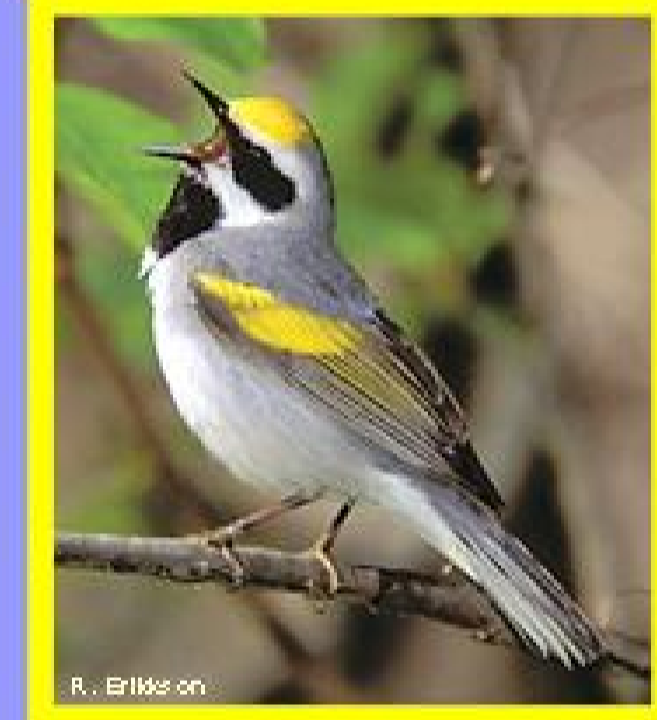

Yellow Rail

Louisiana Waterthrush

Cerulean Warbler

Golden-winged Warbler

Canada Warbler

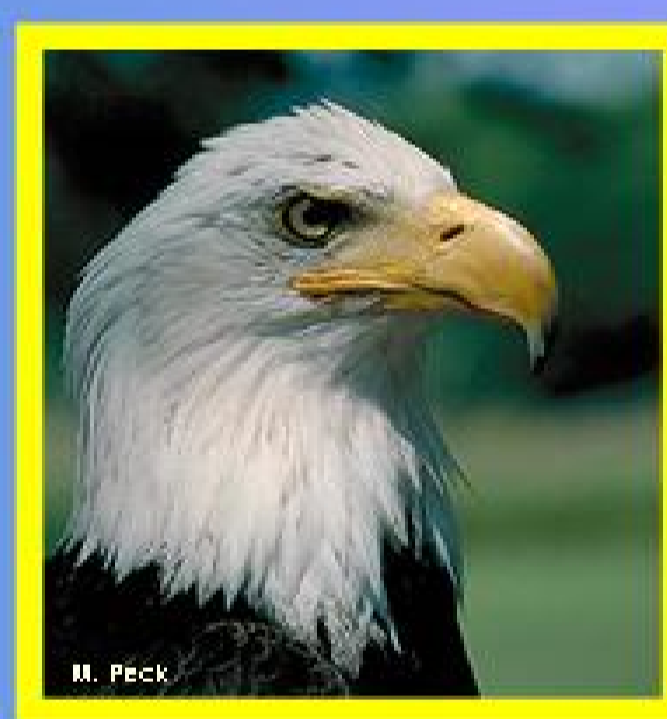

Short-eared Owl

Red-headed Woodpecker

Black Tern

Bald Eagle

Olive-sided Flycatcher

Common Nighthawk

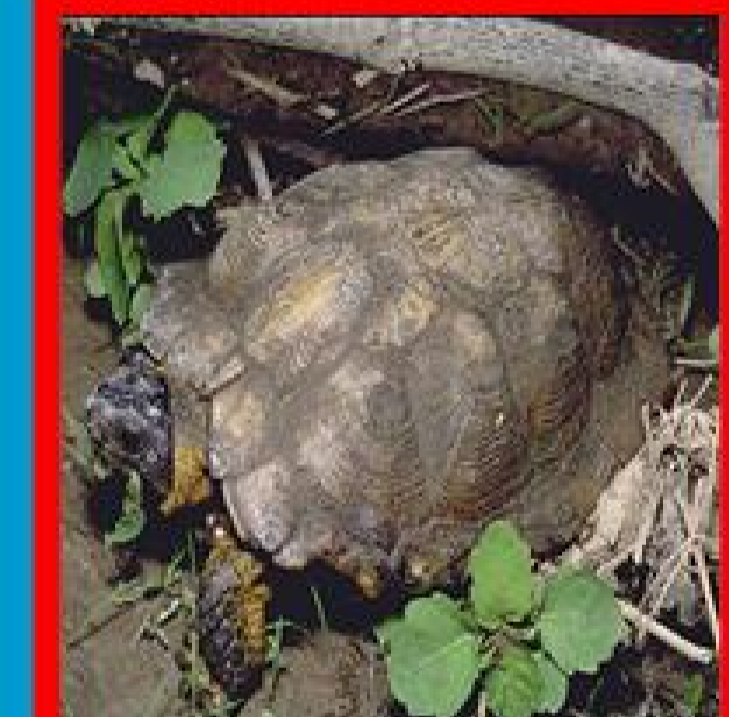

Pale bellied Frost Lichen

Flooded Jellyskin

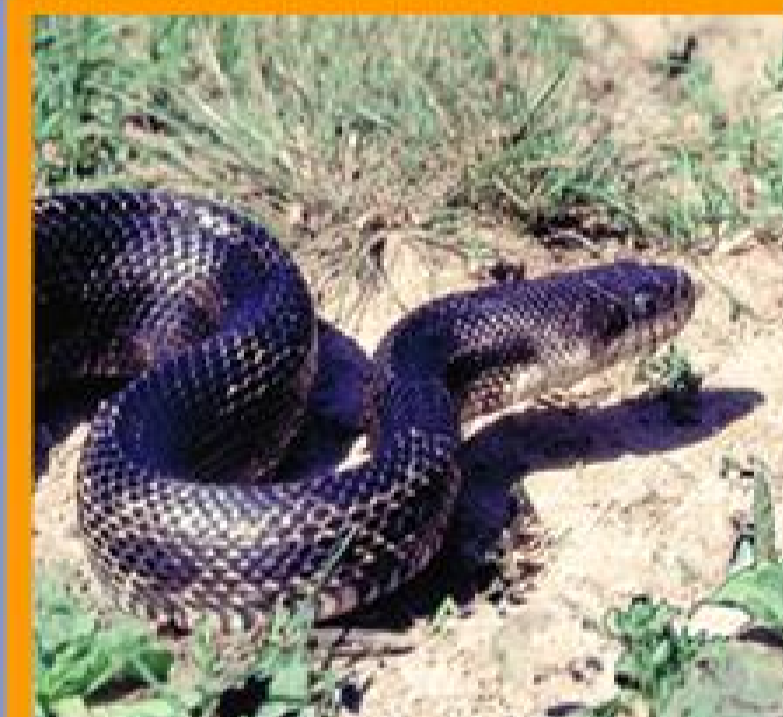

Reptiles

Wood Turtle

Spotted Turtle

Gray Ratsnake

Blanding's Turtle

Eastern Musk Turtle

Spiny Softshell

Map Turtle

Eastern Ribbonsnake

Milksnake

Five-lined Skink

Snapping Turtle

Fishes

American Eel

Pugnose Shiner

Channel Darter

Lake Sturgeon

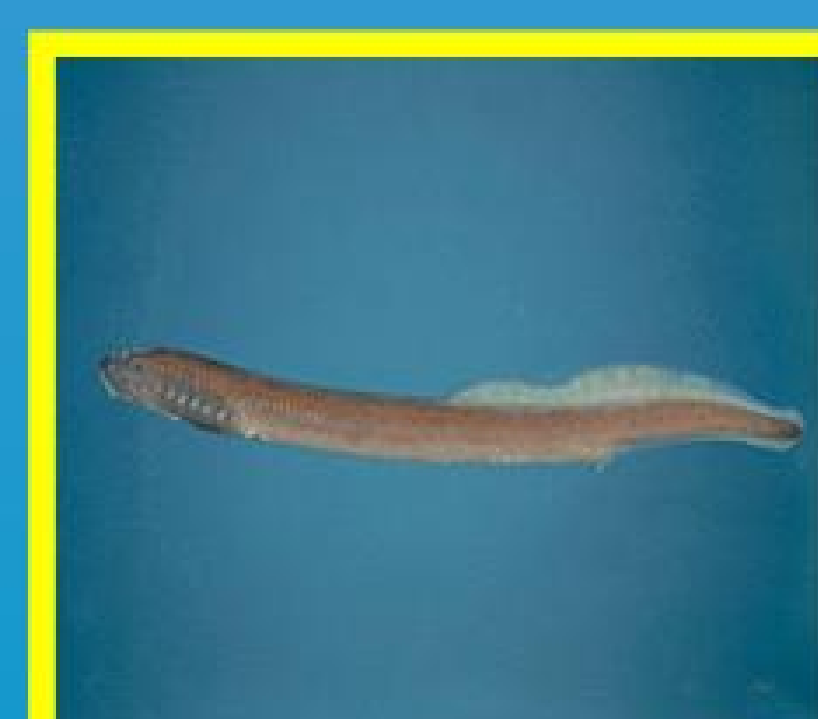

Cutlip Minnow

Bridle Shiner

Grass Pickerel

Northern Brook Lamprey

River Redhorse